

TE Corporation

Our heartfelt condolences go out to those in and around the affected region of Japan. We are pleased to report that all of our employees were accounted for and are safe. Our facilities in Japan had only minor damage that caused little or no delay in production. Our procurement team is in contact with all Japan-based suppliers to understand their status and ability to operate. We continue to monitor news coverage and receive frequent reports from Japan on the impact on our employees, suppliers and customers. Specific communications about your order will come from your sales contact.